PLANS

The only BlueCross Blue Shield (BCBS) plan that excludes elective abortion is the one with the words “Multi-State Plan” in the name of the plan. All D.C. Health Link Aetna plans exclude elective abortion.

At this time the Summaries of Benefits and Coverage for the plans do not consistently indicate whether or not abortion is covered. However, this D.C. HealthLink Frequently Asked Question (FAQ) clarifies which plans on the D.C. HealthLink will cover elective abortions and which ones will not.

Information

Question	Which health plans offered through DC Health Link include coverage for elective abortions and which plans do not?
Answer	Health plans that do not provide coverage for elective abortions include all Aetna health plans, as well as the multi-state plans (MSP) offered by CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield (only the plans that include “Multi-State Plan” in their name). All health plans offered by Kaiser Permanente, United Healthcare, and CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield plans that do not include “Multi-State Plan” in their name include coverage for elective abortions.
