

Bio of Khaled Beshir, Ph.D :

Dr. Beshir is Executive Director of the Awate Foundation, world media service on Eritrea and promotes reconciliation within Eritrea. He is an independent risk management consultant and a subject matter expert in the Horn of Africa specializing in development finance. He advises various UN agencies, international organizations, investors, and law firms on assessment of geopolitical, regulatory, and financial risks. As a longtime advocate of human rights in Eritrea, he works closely with Eritrean civil societies, political organizations, and media outlets, and community leaders. In 2000, he was member of a group of Eritrean intellectuals and professionals (known as G-13) who met President Isaias Afewerki and urged him to introduce political and economic reform and to respect the rule of law.
