114TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H.R. 2189

To direct the President to submit to Congress a report on fugitives currently residing in other countries whose extradition is sought by the United States and related matters.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey (for himself and Mr. SHES) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on

A BILL

- To direct the President to submit to Congress a report on fugitives currently residing in other countries whose extradition is sought by the United States and related matters.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 lives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
 - 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
 - 4 This Act may be cited as the "Walter Patterson and
 - 5 Werner Foerster Justice and Extradition Act".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds	: the	rollor	ring:
------------------------------	-------	--------	-------

- (1) Extradition is the formal surrender of a person by one state to another state for prosecution or punishment.
 - (2) Refusal by other nations to extradite or otherwise render to the United States fugitives within their jurisdiction who have been convicted of committing crimes on United States soil impedes the judicial process and undermines the rule of law.
 - (3) The United States has bilateral extradition treaties with more than 100 nations and an extradition agreement with the European Union.
 - (4) The United States has bilateral extradition treaties with Portugal and Cuba.
 - (5) The failure to bring criminal fugitives to justice in the United States is an affront to the victims of those crimes.
 - (6) The refusal of Portugal, a close ally and good friend of the United States, to extradite George Wright, convicted of the 1962 murder of Walter Patterson, fugitive from justice since his 1970 escape from the Bayside State Prison in New Jersey, is a deplorable example of a failure to extradite, and has caused ongoing suffering and stress to Mr. Patterson's surviving family and friends.

- 1 (7) The refusal of Cuba to extradite or other2 wise render Joanne Chesimard, an escaped convict
 3 who fled to Cuba after killing Werner Foerster, New
 4 Jersey State Trooper, is a deplorable example of a
 5 failure to extradite or otherwise render, and has
 6 caused ongoing suffering and stress to Mr.
 7 Foerster's surviving family and friends.
 - (8) The refusals to extradite George Wright and Joanne Chesimard are emblematic of a number of such refusals from other nations, such that United States policies and efforts to secure extradition and the extradition policies of countries from which the United States seeks extradition and rendition bear further examination.
 - (9) Such examination will be promoted by the issuance of a public report on the status of extradition requests by the United States and related matters.
- (b) Purpose.—The purpose of this Act is to provide information necessary to evaluate and thereby strengthen
 United States Government efforts to extradite fugitives.
- 22 SEC. 3. REPORT.

date of the enactment of this Act, and not later than the

23	shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may include
24	a classified annex if necessary.

2	priate congressional committees" means—

4	Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Rep-
5	resentatives; and

7	the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate.
