

Municipalities in New Jersey's 4th Congressional District 2013-2022

| Monmouth County | Monmouth County (continued) | Ocean County             |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Allentown              | Manasquan                          | Bay Head                        |
| Avon-By-The-Sea        | Middletown (part)*                 | Jackson                         |
| Belmar                 | Millstone                          | Lakehurst                       |
| Bradley Beach          | Neptune City                       | Lakewood                        |
| Brielle                | Neptune Township                   | Manchester                      |
| Colts Neck             | Ocean Township                     | Plumsted                        |
| Eatontown              | Red Bank                           | Point Pleasant Borough (part) * |
| Englishtown            | Roosevelt                          | Point Pleasant Beach            |
| Fair Haven             | Rumson                             |                                 |
| Farmingdale            | Sea Girt                           |                                 |
| Freehold Borough       | Shrewsbury Borough                 |                                 |
| Freehold Township      | Shrewsbury Township                |                                 |
| Holmdel                | Spring Lake                        |                                 |
| Howell                 | Spring Lake Heights                | Mercer County            |
| Lake Como              | Tinton Falls                       | Hamilton                        |
| Little Silver          | Upper Freehold                     | Robbinsville                    |
| Manalapan              | Wall                               |                                 |

* Point Pleasant Borough and Middletown are split between Congressional Districts. If students live in either of these towns and are unsure of their District, please call 609-585-7878 and provide the student's complete home address. The staff will be able to research in which District the student lives.